

Primoris Services Corporation Announces Hiring of Thomas McCormick as Chief Operating Officer

Apr 07, 2016

DALLAS, TX -- (Marketwired) -- 04/07/16 -- Primoris Services Corporation (NASDAQ: PRIM) ("Primoris" or "Company") today announced that Thomas E. McCormick has been hired as its Chief Operating Officer, reporting to David King, President and Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. McCormick, 54, has extensive Engineering & Construction industry experience in projects for many energy-related end markets, including pipelines, refining, petrochemicals, gas processing, LNG, oil sands and industrial gases. He comes to Primoris from a large, publicly traded E&C company where he held a variety of executive positions. Since February 2007, he has served as President for Oil & Gas, Senior Vice President -- Gas Processing & Oil Sands, Global Vice President -- Downstream Operations, and Vice President Operations. Prior to 2007, Mr. McCormick worked for more than 17 years at BE&K Engineering on a variety of heavy civil projects. Mr. McCormick has a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from Florida State University and an Advanced Executive Management Degree from Insead University in Fontainebleau, France.

David King commented, "We are delighted to welcome Tom to the Primoris team. Tom has an extensive background in project and construction operations with a deep understanding of our end markets. He brings many years of leadership, and I know Tom will be a hands-on executive. I have tremendous confidence that as COO, Tom will make a strong contribution to developing and implementing our strategy for continuing long-term shareholder value creation."
